lated the circumstances leading up to the question, asked by the prison guard of Paul and Silas as they lay in prison, cast there by the angry mob after they had driven the devil from the body of an unfortunate girl.Taking his answer from that of Paul, "Believe in the Lord, Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved," Sunday adroitly carried his theme through a discourse of the many ways in which men and women in every walk of life might be saved from sin and the devil."The biggest blessing this country has seen in many a day was the wiping out of the hellish saloons," said Sunday. "The saloons of this coun-they belong, 50 years ago if every man had voted right.""Saying you don't believe in the Bible won't keep you out of hell. If Paul and Silas had been sitting in a game of bridge whilst when the Lord called on them in prison they wouldn't have heard the call. It's Jesus Christ or nothing in this old earth.""I have no use for those who do not use their talents for the Lord," said Sunday. And then he told the touching story of a meeting of a famous London literary society, when a young woman charmed the noted men with her voice. One old preacher in the party told the young woman that he was so pleased with her ability in singing and playing that he asked that she give her talents to the work of the Lord. When the woman lay down to sleep that night she rolled and tossed and could not sleep. Finally she arose and on bended knees wrote the world loved song, "Just as I Am,

Owner—Mrs. Nettie Kurtz

front in Seabreeze, one of the largest amusement halls on the East Coast, lies in ruins today, the result of a fire which entirely destroyed the building, leaving only the bare coquina rock walls standing as a reminder of the attractive amusement place which has been the center of life in the Triple Cities for many years.The first intimation that the building was afire was received by Linton Brewster, of Bridgeport, Conn., a young man who is caretaker of the place, and who lives on the property.
He was awakened about 4 o'clock, he said, by extreme heat, and realizing that the building was afire, ran outside, to find the entire roof a mass of seething flames.The Seabreeze fire department was called to the scene, but no water was thrown, as it was realized that it would be useless, the interior of the building being afire its entire length at that time.The fire burned until late this morning, leaving little of the resort but the bare, charred walls.Mrs. Nettie Kurtz Harris, owner and manager of the Nautilus, was absent from the city last evening, having been on a trip to Miami, spending last evening at Fort Pierce, where efforts were made to reach her today, to acquaint her of the loss. Jack Harris has been in Miami for several days, the party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs.
Harris and Mrs. Harris' sister, Mrs.
Conover, intending to return within a few days.It is estimated by relatives of the owner that Mrs. Harris and her interests had invested in the Nautilus, about $60,000. There was insurance to one-half this amount carried, a portion by Conrad & Donnelly and a portion by C. A. Randall, of the East Coast State bank.A number of years ago a company was organized to build the amusement resort, called the Seabreeze Development company. T. F. Williams, of this city, was the head of the firm which included many prominent residents of the Triple Cities. It was estimated that this company put $40,000 into the building without completing it.Michael Sholtz later took over the interests in the Casino, constructed a stream cut line from Daytona to the North Seabreeze resort and for several years conducted an amusement park there.Mrs. Harris later took over the building, purchasing it from mortgage holders, of which Bert Fish, of Deland, was one, and is said today to have been the only loser in the fire, which wiped out the building.No estimate of the additional loss as to furnishings or equipment can be made until the return of Mr. and Mrs. Harris.The Casino contained one of the finest swimming pools in the state, a large cab, dining room and kitchen, dance floor and other appurtenances of an amusement resort.Residents are recalling the fact that the Daytona Beach Casino burned just

Sunday Gets Rub Down After Each Evening Service

After every evening sermon Billy Sunday has a regular athletic rub down, the same as a prizefighter after a big battle.

In rubbing down the famous evangelist a solution made up of winter green, olive oil and witch hazel is used.

This prescription was furnished Mr. Sunday by his personal friend, Dr. Howard A. Kelly of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, during his big campaign in that city a few years ago.

This rub down is given Mr. Sunday by his property man, Albert Peterson, who has been with him since the Des Moines, Iowa, campaign in 1914, except one year which the latter spent in the war. This young man is himself a natural athlete and from all appearances would be able to take care of himself in most any kind of a physical contest. He is evidently a mighty valuable man, and those who know say his chief thinks a whole lot of him.

First, he is the property man and has entire charge of all the books, papers and other valuables that are used in the various campaigns. He attends to the packing, shipping, receiving and unpacking.

Second, he organizes the shop and industrial meetings for men and boys and often speaks to them. He is said to be a very effective talker.

Third, he often assists Miss Kinney in her work and sometimes talks to the school and college boys while she is addressing the girls of the same institutions.

Then he has personal charge of Mr. Sunday's physical welfare, and in this he takes a keen personal interest.

"We used to have another fellow to give Mr. Sunday his rub downs," said Mr. Peterson to the News, "but I made up my mind I would rather do it myself. In my opinion, this is what keeps him going. In most places I give him his rub downs in the tabernacles where he speaks, and have a place on purpose for it. Here I have been taking him to his hotel. Of course, he changes all of his clothes immediately after his sermon and before he leaves the Auditorium, and then I give him a good bath and rub down as soon as we can get to the hotel. I give every inch of his body a thorough massage, and I doubt if he could stand up under what he is doing without this kind of care."

When asked if he thought Mr. Sunday expects to continue the evangelistic work indefinitely, Mr. Peterson said:

"Yes, I think he will stick to it as long as he has his health. He is only 58 years old and he is all wrapped up in his work and seems only to think of doing what and all he can to make the world better. Wherever he goes he makes good and true friends among the very best people, and in this way he finds a pleasant and interesting side to his work, in spite of its strenuous activities. Now that the war is over and things are settling down to normal, I look for him to keep right on going."

Mr. Peterson has a very comfortable room, nicely furnished, in the Auditorium, where he stays nights so that he can give the closest personal attention and care of everything belonging to the Sunday campaigns. His home town is Ottumwa, Iowa, and he has known Mr. Sunday for many years, who he says is the best man to work for on earth.

Election Matters Receive Attention in Daytona Beach

As the municipal election for Daytona Beach draws nearer the interest therein naturally increases. The date of the caucus will be fixed at the special meeting of the council at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Several names are being mentioned as possible candidates for mayor. John Farr, the well known real estate owner, who was a candidate at a former election, has his friends; O. J. Masker, who formerly served as mayor and who at one time was in the grocery and restaurant business here, but who is now retired, is also being quite liberally mentioned; D. Jefferson Tracy, whose term as councilman is about to expire, is said to have his political eyes set for this honored goal. Among many young men in business the name of A. W. Shaw, the live wire hardware dealer, is frequently mentioned. Many of the good women of the city would like to see Mrs. John S. Barbe serve a term as mayor. She is known as a mighty capable business woman and her friends argue that no one should be given a public office who is not able to take pretty good care of their own business. Mrs. Barbe is also being mentioned for tax collector, although it is generally understood that George A. Parker, the present incumbent, will be a candidate for re-election.

Many of the friends of Guy G. Bailey, who has worked night and day for the city as president of the Chamber of Commerce, are insisting that he allow the use of his name as a candidate for council, but as yet he has not given a definite answer.

It is altogether probable that president of the council, W. F. Blackman, will be on the ticket for re-election.

One prominent man said today: "How I wish we could get a man like C. H. Wilson to serve as mayor. He is careful, safe and at the same time would be progressive and I believe he would see to it that the city would prosper."

Mrs. Nora Tindall of Indianapolis and Mrs. Isabel M. Woodard of Lebanon, Ind., are among the recent arrivals at the beach. They hope to have suitable apartments within a few days.

Mrs. J. C. Bane and Miss Edith Bane of Argosmith, Ill., have arrived at the beach for an extended visit. They are registered at the Dixie hotel.

THE BREAKERS

At The Breakers are registered: Emma G. Hebb, Terre Haute, Ind.; D. F. Burritt, Chicago; L. M. Calloway and D. T. Davis, Jacksonville; J. P. Hallagan, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wahn, Pittsburgh; Mrs. F. J. Alexander, Beresford; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Alexander, Miss Alice Alexander, Charlotte, N. C.; P. H. Miller, Newark, N. J.; Edward Bourne, Jr., New York; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fry, Tampa; K. W. Norton, Jacksonville; N. W. Cunningham, Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Courtney, Morgantown, W. Va.; F. M. Chaffee, DeLand, Fla.; R. M. Cowan, Palatka.

SEASIDE INN

At the Seaside Inn are registered: Mrs. A. M. Pratt and Miss Marjorie Pratt, Boston; O. A. Love, Tampa; Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks and Mr. and Mrs. John Mott, Jackson, Mich.; E. J. Hornbrook, Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rogers, Chicago; T. C. Putnam, Cincinnati.

SUNDAY GOING TO SPEAK IN SANFORD FRIDAY P. M.

Billy Sunday has consented to go to Sanford and preach there on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock for his old time friend, Rev. S. W. Walker.

He has also received an invitation from George E. White of the state university of Gainesville, asking him to come there and preach one of his typical sermons. He is not certain yet whether he will be able to accept, as there are so many demands upon his time.

Miss Ida Woodrich of Chicago has arrived and is looking for a suitable apartment.

W. J. Winfield, a retired business man of Morgantown, W. Va., arrived yesterday at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fobes of Lexington, Mass., are among the very pleasant guests at The Breakers. They say they are delighted with the beach and that they are enjoying their stay here to the limit. Mr. Fobes is a retired business man, having for years been the head of one of the most extensive manufacturers of confectionaries in the country. He says he is looking for a revival of business very soon and that he believes conditions will soon be normal.

Boy Scouts at the Beach Will Give Exhibition

At the last meeting of the Boy Scouts in their hall in Seabreeze there was a full attendance and Chief Harry Glimmer and Assistant A. W. Shaw, who are giving the boys a good deal of time and attention, were present to put them through several stunts. Sixteen boys were on hand and everyone apparently enthusiastically interested in the work of their organization.

Tests were made in making fires with only a knife and two matches and without the use of paper. Also in cooking meat and potatoes without any cooking utensils whatever. They buried the potatoes in the coals and cooked the meat on sticks. They had to cook it done and without burning. They were also given some final training in tying 12 different standard knots and also in semaphore signaling.

It is the intention of the masters to have the boys give an exhibition in the near future on the main street, that the public may see how well they are progressing in their drills.

TOURISTS PREFER THE BEACH TO ALL OTHERS

Mr. and Mrs. William Lock, who are now located most comfortably in the Shelly apartments at the corner of Main street and Atlantic avenue, are not only very agreeable people, but as well most enthusiastic friends of Daytona Beach. Last year they spent in San Diego, Cal., and they have visited all of the leading summer and winter resorts in the country, and yet Mr. Lock says he prefers Daytona Beach to any place he has ever visited as a winter resort.

They have much to be thankful for in the fact that their children are all married and comfortably situated in successful business, one in Fort Worth, Tex.; one in Kansas City; one in Philadelphia and one in Orlando, Fla., so that in getting around to visit them they are sure to see a good deal of the world. They are delighted with their experience here.

Billy Sunday has just received a letter from Walter Gihlan of West Ham, Tasmania. Secretary Mathews says this is right straight through the earth from here. The communication contained Christmas greetings for Mr. Sunday and was evidently written with the expectation that it would reach him before the holidays. Tasmania is directly south of Australia. Such messages come to the evangelist from all over the world.

Many Prominent Residents Urged to Take Office

In Seabreeze considerable interest is being manifested with regard to the forthcoming municipal election.

From present indications there will be more than one candidate for mayor and possibly for marshal.

C. A. Kinney, the real estate man and present councilman; L. D. Drewery, whose new mansion on the ocean front just north of the Clarendon hotel, has just been finished, and E. W. Herndon, who lives just off from Ocean boulevard, between the Clarendon and Princess Isabella hotels, are already being urged by their friends to accept the signal honor. Mr. Kinney was the second mayor of Daytona Beach, but later moved into Seabreeze. He is extensively interested in both cities, has his office in Daytona Beach and his home in Seabreeze, where he has served as councilman for several years. He says most emphatically that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the council, but has indicated to his friends that if the majority of the voters so will he will accept the mayoralty.

Mr. Drewery has recently invested a good sized fortune in a magnificent home in Seabreeze, and while his summer home, and his business are in Cincinnati, he has many influential friends here who would like to see a man of his business capacity the chief executive of the city. Mr. Herndon also has large interests here, is a man of affairs, and takes a lively interest in all public matters. He is inclined to be progressive in his ideas of public improvement.

Of the five councilmen the terms of the following expire this year: C. A. Kinney, W. E. Bates and W. P. Matthews. Those holding over are W. C. Miller and A. N. Flemming. Mr. Matthews has expressed himself as not desiring a re-election, but some of his friends have been urging him to run again, and it is now possible he will.

It has been decided not to hold a public caucus, but to nominate by petition and with the approval of the council. Marshal J. B. Abercrombie started out this morning to circulate one, and it is expected the tickets will be ready for presentation within a day or two.

Just now it looks as if Marshal Abercrombie will have opposition in the election, as the friends of Ed Lowe, the carpenter and former marshal, are wanting him to enter the race. E. D. L. Graves is the retiring treasurer. This office pays $50 per year and he is not certain whether to ask for it again or not.

W. H. Courtney, the well known real estate man and present clerk, will be a candidate for re-election.

LIQUOR RUNNERS GRABBED BY ALERT DEPUTY SHERIFFS

WEST PALM BEACH, Feb. 22.—If the bootleggers have labored under the impression that the sheriff's forces of this county were observers of the fourth commandment, which relates to Sabbath observance, they were shocked, surprised and chastened yesterday when they learned otherwise, much to their sorrow. This arm of the law was aware of the fact that new tactics were being utilized to smuggle in liquor. The procedure in fishing to get out of sight of land and meet the real smugglers, where the original cargo is distributed. The smuggled liquor is distributed bottle by bottle in all corners of these seashores and they boldly tie up along the shores of Lake Worth or in the vicinity of the fish docks, whence the contraband is moved at an opportune time.

Deputies Wakely and Verner arrested Elmer Leasing, a white man who had eight cases of assorted liquor aboard the cabin cruises "Gull." The boat as well as the liquor was confiscated. Louis Williamson, a negro who had used a boat without the owner's consent, was found in possession of one case of Gordin gin and a gallon of rum. Other contraband was evidently disposed of at the approach of the officers, as they saw Williamson heaving something overboard very hurriedly.

At noontime Sunday the deputies arrested John Rolle, a Nassau negro, at North Poinsettia street near Fifth avenue, where he was "totting" a suitcase which when examined was found to contain one dozen bottles of Spu Royal Scotch. When John's clothes were searched a .32 calibre pistol, a box of cartridges and a dirk knife were found.

Weird music is produced from an ordinary carpenter's saw in the "Greenwich Village Follies of 1920."

Pensacola Will Be Represented Here On Friday

Citizens of Pensacola who are touring the East Coast this week in the interests of the Deep Water City, in an endeavor to induce tourists to return home via the Metropolis of West Florida, will arrive in Daytona early Friday morning to pay their respects to the Triple Cities. They are boosters for Florida as well as Pensacola, and every one of them is a live wire. Last night T. H. Lacy of the advertising department of the Daily News received the following telegram from Mrs. Lois K. Mayes, proprietor of the Pensacola Journal: "Party of twenty-eight, including ten ladies, will arrive Friday morning."

It is needless to say that the Chamber of Commerce under the able supervision of Secretary Crosby will do the proper thing in the way of opening the feed bag and arranging an automobile ride. Their train arrives at 4:12 a. m. At 4:13 T. H. Lacy and others will enter the private cars and summon Mayor Saunders, Street Commissioner Heinrichs and other male members of the party for an early morning spin on the greatest beach in the world. It will be a real treat for the strenuous boosters of Pensacola and after a fast spin they will return for the ladies and proceed to the Dayton Hotel for breakfast. Then the party will see Daytona, Daytona Beach, Seabreeze, Ortona, Ormond, Ormond Beach, Port Orange and Wilbur-by-the-Sea, and be shown features of the Halifax Country.

Pensacola on last Saturday celebrated the centennial anniversary of the admission of Florida into the union. It was there that the exchange of flags between the United States and Spain took place and Andrew Jackson, qualified as provisional governor of Florida.

Pensacola Bay was discovered by the Spanish Captain-General Panfilo de Narvaez in 1528, just 32 years after the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus. In 1559 Don Tristan de Luna (Spanish), on August 14, cast anchor in Pensacola Bay and called it "Santa Maria". Settlement was made by him on the site of what is now Fort Barrancas, thus antedating by four years St. Augustine. Here the first church bells in the United States were introduced.

$250.00 REWARD

A reward of $250.00 will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who assaulted and tried to kill Mrs. E. Chastaine last Saturday night.

Thomas E. and H. Chastaine, 107 First St. This amount is guaranteed by the Theus-Sumner Furniture Co.

Washington Birthday Ball at Hotel Clarendon is Scene of Rare Beauty and Pleasure

All things conspired to make the annual Washington ball given at the Hotel Clarendon last evening, the finest social event ever enjoyed in the Triple Cities.

The evening was one of rare beauty. The ball room of the hotel overlooks the sea, and as the full moon arose over the waters it was a scene full of enchantment, and was appreciated by many promenading the big veranda.

Within the lobby, the ball room, the dining room and every part of the spacious interior was gay in the national colors. The numbers attending the dinner were greater than in previous years, and the menu, which was in an art folder, on which was a fine picture of Washington, contained every delicacy of food that it would seem the appetite of man could suggest. There seemed to be nothing lacking and the preparation and service were perfect. The lights in the dining room were red, white and blue and flags draped the walls and the great white pillars of the room were decorated in the national colors. In the hotel lobby and in the ball room the lighting was of the same effect. The ball room walls are a beautiful red with white trimmings and with these blended silken flags and shaded lights. Entering the dining room the guests passed through an aisle of potted plants and festoons of the red white and blue.

Those who are regular guests at the hotel filed the dining room to capacity at the usual dinner hour and those who came especially for the dinner and ball were served at about 3:00 o'clock. It was a big crowd to take care of, but under the skillful management of Daniel O'Keefe, who for several years has had charge of the Clarendon dining room, things moved off with precision and all the guests were promptly and courteously served. The ability and determination of the management to place at the head of every department in the big hotel, only persons who are efficient in their line of work and who know how to meet and to treat the public accounts in a large way for the great popularity of this hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Bohannon entertained Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, of Philadelphia; Walter Brown of New York City; Mrs. Harriet Young, of Knoxville, and Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Davey of Daytona.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Brochwoldtz entertained a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Mayo, of Little Falls, N. Y., and their daughter, Mrs. George Ward.

Mrs. W. J. Erreger entertained Wilson Mott and Miss R. A. Trask, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Snicker, of New York, and Mrs. John Bronson, of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Holmes had a party of four; Dr. Fred Pulleton, four; Ben Johnson, three; A. L. Johnson, nine; Mrs. Fred Niver, six; Dr. Rawlin, four; George Wilson, three, and a great number of other special dinner parties consisting of from two to a dozen persons.

Guests of the evening included: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walsh and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Holyoke, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rouser, of Seabreeze; Mrs. Dentle, Mrs. H. I. Porter, Mrs. W. Lee, Mrs. E. M. Marshall, Mrs. H. M. Barr, Mrs. M. Lewis, Mrs. E. M. Leader, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Windsor, Jr.; Miss M. McMillan, Donald McMillan, S. M. Long, Miss Elizabeth Newell, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Bernard, Miss M. Ford, John Dice, Mrs. S. B. Corbin, G. K. Williams, Mrs. J. E. Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Swift, Mrs. J. E. Rawlings, Mrs. Charles Fleischmann, Mrs. C. R. Holmes, Mrs. Walter Morse, Mrs. T. E. Bahlman, Col. H. C. Sherred, William J. Culer, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cornwell, Mr. and Mrs. V. Smith, Mrs. R. W. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Benschoten, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Simpson, Miss Mildred Maraden, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shean, Mrs. L. G. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Gardner, Mrs. M. Torrens, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Coffin, Miss C. S. Eveleth, Miss E. Dorr, Dr. Raymond Howe, Miss Lillian Thompson, Mrs. Joseph Zimmerman, Mrs. E. C. Titus, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Haines, Mrs. A. D. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dyal.

Beside the special parties given in the dining room many informal and pleasant ones occurred in the Lotus Club grill.

R. M. Bond of Deland entertained a party of six; Fred C. Merry, of Kansas City, six; Mr. Gardner, six; J. B. Rock, of New York City, six; L. J. Harrington, of Portsmouth, N. H., six.

HOW'S THE WEATHER TODAY?

Daytona temperatures for Tuesday showed a wide variance, from 47, the low mark last night, to 74 at noon, when the sunshine helped to warm up.

Warm, fair weather is the promise for today and tomorrow.

Warmer temperatures were evident throughout the north, after the heavy snow storms of the week-end, Boston again reported the lowest temperature, being the center of the storm which has raged over the New England states for several days.

Reports of the U. S. Weather Bureau for some of the larger cities for Tuesday and last night follow:

	High	Low
Boston	34	20
Chicago	42	38
Kansas City	40	38
NEW YORK	38	28

BILLY SUNDAY

'SECOND COMING OF CHRIST' SUBJECT OF BIG SUNDAY ADDRESS

being the convert, who in after years devoted her talents to righteous uses.

Doing Everything Best

Billy stated that he liked people to do everything in the best way, but that mysteries should not make one hesitate.

"When I was playing baseball I could cover 100 yards in 10 seconds and never saw the back of a man running against me. I could cover the diamond in 14 seconds, the fastest any man ever did it. Ty Cobb and his crowd can't get inside the money with me. And I can run just as fast for the Lord, as I used to for the devil," concluded Sunday.

Referring to his text, the speaker stated that people did not go to hell because they were sinners at heart, but because they rejected the plan of salvation. "Don't be afraid that you haven't religion just because you don't froth at the mouth like a dog with the hydrophobia, but get religion like you buy your furniture—on the installment plan."

He related, in nailing his point, the story of the healing of the blind by Christ. "There was no healing power in the clay, nor in the spit, but faith predominated, and all good works can be accomplished by faith. Neither is religion a matter of geography—it's just as good one place as another."

"Don't Worry About Religion"

"Many people refuse religion because of its mysteries, which is all wrong," said Sunday. "When you eat a hearty dinner you don't question the eating of food because you don't understand all the workings of your organism; when you step on the gas you don't hesitate because you don't know the origin or its chemical analysis. Don't worry about religion, but accept it as Jesus Christ offers it, for your salvation. Answer as Paul did to the guard, 'Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.'"

"To my mind a Christian is a man, woman or child that comes to God as a lost sinner, who publicly confesses Jesus Christ, who takes the Bible as the rule of faith and practice and accepts Christ as the savior of mankind."

"The question, 'What shall I do to be saved,' and Paul's answer, 'Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ,' should be written across your page of sin," said Sunday as he closed his evening service.

Music Excellent

The musical features of the evening service surpassed even the excellent singing of previous meetings. Homer Rodeheaver, in a solo, "Uncle Sam's Song," a duet by Messrs. Rodeheaver and Heaton, and the trio, composed of Messrs. Rodeheaver, Matthews and Peterson, in several negro selections, together with the able singing of the huge choir, were features which made this portion of the program one of the most enjoyable of the series.

"THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST"

"The Second Coming of Christ," the evangelist's Tuesday afternoon sermon, is classed as among his best. Forceful in every phase, containing very valuable data, biblical statistics, as it might be termed, this sermon has been syndicated and published in book form, to be distributed through out the country in the great work of the evangelist.

The sermon deals entirely with the second coming of Christ, about which many theories have been advanced. In a very beautiful word picture of the salvation, redemption and great reward for those who have accepted Christ on that day, the noted evangelist launched an urgent appeal for all to equip themselves properly "for the day cometh when you thinketh the least of it."

The delightful rendition of hymns by the mammoth choir, the Rodeheaver trombone and vocal solos and the introductory sermon by Rev. Butler started the afternoon services, which were begun shortly after 2 o'clock, with a great crowd in attendance.

Many Outsiders

In a canvass of the audience it was found that the majority of the Sunday hearers are people from cities other than Daytona Beach, Daytona, and Seabreeze, and that each day there are many who attend these sermons who have never heard the evangelist before. Those who have attended are eager to return.

In the appeal for funds it was brought out that Mr. Sunday hopes part of the salary of those in his party and sees that their part of the money is obtained before receiving any for his part, receiving his salary on the last day of his campaigns.

This afternoon "Billy" Sunday will deliver a sermon of special interest and benefit to the mothers. He stated during his sermon yesterday that he planned to deliver his renowned sermon on Americanism before leaving, adding that "it's so hot at times it'll burn a mail pouch."

The announcement that this forceful sermon would be delivered here was met with great applause.

While dealing on his return to the "snow drifts" in the North to continue his work, after having completed his campaign here, "Billy" stated: "If I was going to my eternal reward—to glory—I'd thank God upon arrival for letting me stop here in Daytona for 10 days on the route."

After a few informal words the evangelist launched into his most remarkable sermon with vigor.

"Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."—I Thes. 4:17-18.

"The meeting here mentioned is to be the greatest meeting the Bible tells us anything about. There have been some wonderful meetings, but never has there been one to compare with this. It was a wonderful meeting the children of Israel had on the shore of the Red sea, after Pharaoh's pursuing host had been destroyed in the angry waters, and Miriam, the prophetess, with her timbrel, led the people in singing, 'Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and rider hath he thrown into the sea.' (Ex. 15:21.) And it was another great meeting they had at the foot of Mount Sinai, when the law of God was given to them amid thunders and lightnings and fire and smoke."

"All these were great meetings, and any number of others have been held, both in former times and in our own day. But no meeting has ever been held anywhere or in any time that could begin to compare in importance with the greatest of all meetings that is to be held in the air, when our Lord comes to make up his jewels. That meeting is the one for which all others have been preparing the way. It will be the crowning meeting of all history. The purpose of all that has been done in this world up to the present time has been to prepare for that great meeting in the air."

"Mackled Marching Upward"

"From Adam mankind has been marching, step by step, up a grand stairway but has failed to reach the top. The fall of Adam was one step toward it, and Jacob and his 12 sons were another. Joseph ruling in Egypt was another, the deliverance under Moses another, the conquest of Canaan under Joshua another, and so on with every event in sacred history. It was for this Jesus suffered on the cross to make atonement for sin. It was for this he arose from the dead and ascended into heaven, where he took his place at the right hand of the Father. It was for this the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost, and it was for this that churches have been organized and missions sent to the ends of the earth. These things have all been done to prepare the way and lead up to the meeting which is so graphically described in the text."

"It was for this meeting God made his plans before he laid the foundations of the earth, and it was of this meeting he was thinking before the morning stars sang together."

"We are not told when Jesus will come, but we are told that His coming is sure, and we are charged to watch for it. Yet the church today shows as little concern about his coming again as his disciples did about his going away. All of this is fully in accord with Peter: 'There shall come in the last days scoffers walking after their own lusts, saying, Where is the promise of his coming, for since the fathers fell asleep all things continue as they were from the beginning until now.'—II Peter 3:3-4."

"Jesus not only foretold his going away, but charged his followers to expect His return, and be ready for it. 'Watch, therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Therefore, be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh.'—Matt. 24:42-44."

"The second coming of Christ is the emphatic doctrine of the New Testament. It is mentioned and referred to more than three hundred and fifty times, and yet the majority of church members never heard a sermon on the subject; that is the reason they think so little of looking into the matter themselves. The church makes much of baptism, but in all of Paul's epistles baptism is only mentioned or referred to thirteen times, while the return of the Lord is mentioned fifty times. This certainly shows which he considered the most important.

McChyne, the great Scotch preacher, once said to some of his friends, 'Do you think Christ will come back tonight?' One after another they said, 'I think not'; then he solemnly repeated: 'Watch, therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Therefore, be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh.'—Matt. 24:42-44."

"With such admonitions as this, what right have we to be unconcerned about it and say, as many preachers do, 'It is nothing to me; I take no interest in the subject whatever.' Who would care to travel on a train where the engineer would never read his orders? Who would ride on a ship where the captain never looked at the compass? You may call it rubbish, but the disciples called it the 'blessed hope.' 'Why call ye me Lord, Lord and do not the things I say?' If Jesus had said, 'I will not return for two thousand years,' nobody would have begun to look for Him before the time was near, but he expects His followers to be always looking for his return."

Plenty of Proof

"A great many say, 'I believe the millennium will come first, then Christ will come at the end of it.' What people think has nothing to do with it, but what God says has everything to do with it. Many have missed railroad trains because they believed they would come at a time that did not correspond with the official time card. You will see God's time card if you carefully read the Bible. Not a word can be found in the Bible that gives the slightest hope for the millennium before the return of Christ; but you can find plenty of verses that tell you to look for the coming of the Lord first."

"As we look back over the two thousand years since Christ, how far we seem to be away from the time when the will of God shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. Every edition of the press seems to make it clear that the devil is still having his way. Look at the reign of wickedness in our great cities in both high life and low. No college has ever yet made a saint, or ever will. Education may improve conditions, but it can never cleanse the heart. Look at the lukewarmness and indifference in the churches everywhere, and see what many of them are compelled to resort to in order to keep from going under. See to what schemes and dodges and foolishness some preachers have to resort to to get anybody to go and hear them."

"There can be no millennium until Jesus comes; it is His presence that makes the millennium. You might as well talk of daylight not coming until the sun goes down. The millennium cannot begin until Satan has been bound in the pit. Nothing is more certain than that the glory of God shall cover the earth, but it will be after Jesus comes."

"Many have the idea that the world will grow better and better until the coming of the millennium and everybody will be converted, and you hear that stuff preached, but the Bible does not touch any such trash."

Reign of Christ to Bring Millennium
"Many think and preach that the millennium will be brought about by the increase of knowledge, culture, great inventions such as the gasoline engine, automobile, electricity, radio, airplane, wireless telegraphy, airplanes, etc. These have nothing to do with bringing the millennium. It is the personal reign of Christ that brings the millennium. Those who have been the greatest blessing to the world were filled with this hope—and preached it."

"The word of God was vitiated and neutralized by the traditions of men when Jesus first came, and that is very largely the trouble in present times. Instead of going to the Bible to find out what God says, the preacher is too apt to go to his books, to see what the great men of his church have to say about it, and all their preaching and teaching takes its color from the glasses the rabbies wear just as was the case in the time of Jesus. The fact that Jesus was not recognized by the high-priest authorities but was rejected and crucified as an impostor, shows what a dangerous and deadly thing it is to accept the traditions of men rather than what God says about things. Too many, who are now masters of Israel, are as much in the dark as Nicodemus was. The truth is no harder to get at than corn on the cob. If we will first strip off the husk and shell it we need to repeat more upon the

If we would preach so that those who hear us will also hear the voice of God in our message, it is not what Dr. Tila or Prof. That has to say about it that settles the question and settles it right, but how reads the Word? What does the Bible say about it?

"It is high time for Christians to interpret unfulfilled prophecies by the light of prophecies already fulfilled. The curses on the Jews were brought to pass literally; so also will be the blessings. The scattering was literal; so also will be the gathering. The pulling down of Zion was literal; so also must be the building up. The rejection of Israel was literal; and so also must be the restoration. The first coming of Christ was literal, visible and personal, and what right has anybody to conclude that His second coming will be altogether spiritual? If His first advent was with a real body, why not the same with His second coming?"

"When Jesus first came, the smallest predictions were fulfilled to the very letter; and should this not teach us to expect that the same will be true when he comes again? There are very many more prophecies concerning His second coming than His first, and does this mean that God wants to give us the most favorable opportunity possible to prepare for it? If the humility and shame of Christ at His first coming was literal and visible, should not His coming in power and glory be also literal and visible?"

"What right have we to say that the words Judah, Zion, Israel and Jerusalem ever mean anything but literal Judah, Zion, Israel and Jerusalem? Some one has called attention to the fact that there are only two or three places in the whole New Testament where such names are used in what may be called a spiritual or figurative way. Jerusalem occurs eighty times, and in every case is unquestionably literal, except when the opposite is clearly indicated by such qualifying terms as 'heavenly,' 'new' or 'holy.' Jew occurs a hundred times, and only four are even ambiguous. Israel and Israelite occur forty times, and all literal. Judah and Judaea about twenty times, and literal in every case."

"While face to face with them, Jesus taught his disciples in constant expectation of his return, and they so understood him and lived accordingly. They preached the doctrine and taught it in their epistles, every one of them. Certainly, if anybody ever understood the Lord correctly, it was the men whom he personally trained to do that very thing, that they might hand the truth He gave them down to us. If they failed to understand him, what hope is there that anybody else may do so?"

"Jesus is going to come and reveal himself to the members of his body at the very moment when the last soul is saved necessary to complete that body for the body of Christ must consist of a certain number of souls, or it never could be completed. If it were an infinite number it would be an endless task, and Jesus would never return, for He can no more come without His heavenly body than He could come the first time without a human body. It is the completion of the body of Christ, therefore, that will bring him, and show how we may help and hasten his coming. Looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved and the elements shall melt with fervent heat." (II Peter 3:12.)

Our fleet of battleships made its remarkable trip around the Horn and around the world, and again dropped anchor at home on schedule time, almost to the minute in spite of storms and the fickleness of wind and waves, and if the calculations of men can be wrought out so precisely, certainly we have the right to expect that God will execute His plans with absolute precision, in whatever task He sets for Himself. Certainly we can think of nothing so impracticable as that he would complete his program for creation on a schedule time, and yet would send his own hands by failure to anticipate and provide for all possible emergencies and contingencies that the train of His purpose for redemption would be so delayed or nearly wrecked that it would almost have to be abandoned. Do not think for a moment God's purpose can be more kept back a minute than the heavenly bodies can be delayed a minute in redemption. God is working in the clock as surely as in creation, and his chain of salvation is as marked like a single number."

With a pause for prayer, the evangelist took out his watch, showed it to the hands and stated, 'We are only 51 minutes away from that great day when we were again to meet Him. So, let us repeat more upon the afternoons in the chance to compete against each other in a special event. This applies to both the lady and men drivers.

The bringing to this city of the many race horses for the staging of real thoroughbred horse racing for two Saturdays will be a great booster event for the Triple Cities.

Many horse racing enthusiasts will be lined along the beach, elbow to elbow with those adherents of the faster and more thrilling auto races.

It is announced that the Pathe Weekly cameraman, who took movies of the races last Saturday, will be back on the beach Saturday week, to catch more "shots" of the races. This will mean that besides having the only weekly amateur races in the world, Daytona will be shot on the screens throughout the country as having both auto races and horse races, on the finest stretch of beach in the world.

The events for Saturday are as follows:

1st event—Free for all stock cars which haven't won a trophy. Two-mile straightaway.
2nd event—Roman horse racing.
3rd event—Three-mile straightaway for stripped cars, non-trophy winners.
4th event—Running horse race.
5th event—Flying exhibition.
6th event—Ladies' three-mile straightaway for ladies who haven't won trophies.
7th event—One-mile handicap bicycle race, for boys under fifteen years of age. Two prizes by Gene and George Johnson.
8th event—Free for all three-mile straightaway.
9th event—Special horse race.
10th event—Four-mile race, with turns, free for all.
11th event—"Cracker Cowboy" horse race.
12th event—Chariot horse racing.

THREE SOLDIERS KILLED

(The Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—The Bodies of three soldiers were found near Woodford last night. Each was shot through the head and each body bore a not reading: "Spies, court-martialed and found guilty."

"Doc" Roberts, in Disguise Parades Daytona Streets

That Doc Roberts, head of the wiretappers who have infested the Triple Cities for the past few seasons and for whose arrest a warrant has been drawn, but has not been served, is suffering from bad memory was proven on Monday night when he boldly entered the home of a Daytona Beach resident under the impression that he was in the house of friends.

He was in the early evening and a young man and his wife were in their kitchen when they were aware of the presence of a third party. The husband looked up and recognized the noted wiretapper and remarked: "How are you, Doc? What can we do for you?"

Roberts smiled a reassuring smile and said: "Excuse me, I got in the wrong house. This led the young people to assume that they are neighbors to wiretappers."

Sunday afternoon at 5:45 Doc Roberts walked down the east side of Beach street from Volusia as far as the city hall, where he crossed over and proceeded down the north side of Orange avenue in spite of the fact that the entire day forces of the Daytona police department were assembled on the Rexall corner, deputy sheriff and all. It is presumed that they did not recognize the man whom they know well and who is wanted on a year old warrant held by Sheriff Morris, because he was dressed in a gray suit and wore and old pair of low-quartered shoes, a straw hat and heavy glasses. He usually wears a brown suit, shoes which do not show wear and does not always effect glasses. This is probably the reason the police department did not rush over and grab him.

In this connection it might be well to state that the wiretappers this year have their plant at St. Augustine and are taking suckers from Daytona and vicinity to the Ancient City. A possible victim was saved ten thousand dollars last week when he journeyed to Baltimore to secure the money and returned to St. Augustine. On the train going north he met Joe Osborne of Daytona and told him that he was going to make a clean-up. After being informed of the character of the man he had been in connection with the prospective victim kept his money and stayed at home.

The Journal of the American Bankers Association adds it confirmation. A review this morning of New England conditions, also shows improvement. We may have some more pressure against particular issues, but nothing like liquidation warranted. Cotton: Liverpool 1-2 higher on October and unchanged to 1-2 lower. It comes down 28 to 34; spots dull, 62 points down; mills, 761, Sales 2,000."

MISS DORA WILLIAMS
HOSTESS CARD CLUB

Miss Dora Williams was the charming hostess to the Tuesday Evening Bridge club of this week. At a late hour a salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Norma Williams. The game favors were won by Mrs. George Marks and Mrs. Albertus Hankins.

CEILING AND SIDEWALL FIXTURES
of unique design and rare beauty are shown here in splendid variety. For the living room, dining room, halls and bedrooms there are fixtures that will both afford better light and add to the attractiveness of the surroundings. Come and see them. We are sure you will be much surprised that so attractive fixtures can be had at such attractive prices.

PARIS, Feb. 23.—Receiving the American protest against awarding of the Mesopotamian mandate to Great Britain, the League of Nations council today decided to await a decision of the allied supreme council. The allied council at London has already indicated that it would take no action on American affairs until Harding becomes president.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF PLANS AND A PLEDGE OF SERVICE

With the award of contracts for the first two units of our extensive plant at the Talleyrand terminals in Jacksonville, this corporation takes the opportunity of more formally introducing itself to the people of Florida.

Composed exclusively of Florida people and proud of that fact, the Peninsular State Oil Company intends to be a constructive force in the further development of this state, contributing by real service in its line to the prosperity and success of all sections.

It has been our policy to become fully organized and completely equipped for handling business before advertising ourselves or our wares. Accordingly, without any blare of trumpets or blowing of horns about what we proposed to do we have gone quietly ahead and done things.

For the past several years we have been buying property and laying plans for an institution in which we and our fellow citizens might take pride. We have carried the Sun Oil diamond trade-mark into all parts of Florida and have proved the merits of the petroleum products marketed thereunder.

It is a source of great satisfaction to us that we are privileged to represent in Florida the Sun Oil Company, one of the largest, oldest and strongest firms engaged in the oil and allied product business. The Sun Oil Company is particularly fortunate in that it owns and controls alike producing, refining and carrying facilities.

Our Jacksonville plant when completed will be a huge affair. The property has 200 feet frontage and is 2,300 feet in depth, extending back to deep water. The tracks of the St. Johns River Terminal Company cross the lot, giving direct connections with all railway lines entering the city. The location and layout are unsurpassed for our purposes.

The general offices of our business will continue to be located in Palatka, where also we have extensive storage facilities. We occupy rooms on floors of one of the most modern office buildings in this city. Distributing branches already have been placed in operation at ten strategic points elsewhere in Florida (see list below) and additional ones will be established from time to time.

We hope and expect to grow as Florida builds up and propose to do our full share in the work of making the state even more of a leader among the commonwealths of the Union. As we deserve success, we know there will come to us expansion and prosperity and we intend to merit business by the character of our service. For the kindly reception accorded by the public to our preliminary efforts we are profoundly grateful and especially do we feel a sense of obligation to our great competitors, notably the Standard Oil Company, by reason of the friendliness and help extended us by their Florida representatives.

"The Flower Shop" To Give Two Shows On Friday, D.H.S.

Regarding the production, "The Flower Shop," which is coming to Daytona on Friday, one of the newspapers at Brunswick, Ga., has the following to say:

"This mammoth musical comedy ran up its curtain promptly at 8:30 last night, to a large and appreciative audience at the Grand Opera house. Too much cannot be said in praise of the splendid success of this production. Each musical number was a joy and delight, the costumes brilliant and attractive and in the staging and floral effects could be seen the work of a real artist in the fascinating combinations of flowers and color lights and shadows. Each character was so admirably portrayed, it would be impossible to select any one character as the best.

The theme of the play is at once a pretty and humorous conception, and its action revolves about the destruction of a rose by Tom, repudiated by Flora, the Goddess of Flowers. Tom is accused of 'murdering the heart of a rose' and is commanded by her to 'gaze into the crystal.'"

The play in its entirety is what Tom sees in a 24-hour's trance of "gazing into the crystal ball."—Brunswick, Ga., Banner.

Mr. Charles Hilliard (formerly with "Honey Boy" Evans Minstrels) will play the stellar role, supported by a huge local cast of 200 Daytonians, under auspices of Parent-Teachers Association of North Ridgewood school. Two performances only, matinee and night, Friday, Feb. 25 at the Central High School Auditorium at 3:30 and 8:30 o'clock.

Fright, snappy, with a charm of its own, "The Flower Shop" is an artistic and clever production.

BLUE LAW DRESSES FOR GIRL STUDENTS

(International News Service.)

BRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 22.—Unless plans suddenly go wrong 500 girl students of Central High School will adopt a uniform dress.

It will consist of middie blouse, plain skirt, neither narrow or strikingly short, and heavy stockings.

The plan originated with Miss Dora Brown, gymnasium instructor.

Principal William C. Hill favors any movement that eliminated excessive dress cost and reverts to former decency of styles.

All-Star Cast in "The Furnace" at The New Daytona

Director Taylor's greatest triumph in "The Furnace" has been in his selection of the all-star cast for the picture.

Agnes Ayres, as Folly Vallance, triumphant bride, reckless wife, and, in the end, the tender sweetheart pledging her new-found love, is a well-known actress whose beauty and dramatic ability have gained her a sure place among film favorites. Miss Ayres first gained fame in pictures, starring as the heroine of several O. Henry pictures, and later in "Held by the Enemy," in which she played the feminine lead.

Jerome Patrick is an actor of considerable prominence, having appeared in many successes, including "Marie-Odile," "A Thousand Years Ago," "The Escape," "What is Love," and others. In this, his first Realart picture, he gives a polished performance.

Milton Silla, as Keene Mordaunt, is a proper foil to the soul struggle of Anthony Bond, and is especially delightful in his love scenes with Patricia Brent, played by Betty Francisco. Miss Francisco, who played for two seasons in New York in "Maytime," is perfectly cast as vivacious Patricia Brent.

Theodore Roberts, "the grand old man of the screen," needs no introduction. He plays the role of General Brent, while Helen Dunbar interprets the role of the General's wife.

Fred Turner, Mayme Kelso, Lucien Littlefield and Robert Bolter are other prominent members of the all-star cast of "The Furnace," which is being shown afternoons and evenings at the New Daytona.
